

MINOR IN LINGUISTICS

Linguistics Minor – 15 units

A minimum of 6 upper-division units are required to complete the minor.

All coursework used to satisfy the requirements of the minor must be completed with a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

Code	Title	Units
ENG 420	Introduction to the Study of Language	3
ENG 421	Syntax	3
ENG 424	Phonology and Morphology	3
ENG 425	Language in Context	3
Select one:		3
ENG 422	History of the English Language
ENG 423	Language Analysis for Language Teachers
ENG 426	Second Language Acquisition

Program Learning Outcomes

- a. Demonstrate a solid understanding of the fundamental linguistic subfields of phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and sociolinguistics.
- b. Analyze grammatical aspects of English and other languages unfamiliar to them.
- c. Produce a field-appropriate research paper conforming to all writing conventions, citation conventions, and structural conventions in linguistics research.